

Instructions for Acknowledgement, Naming Convention and Limited Use of RPCI BAC Clones

Use of the library should be acknowledged by library name, originating institute (Roswell Park Cancer Institute) and the names of the creators. Clones from this library have also to be named in publications and database submissions using the following schema: library name (e.g. RPCI-1 or RPCI-6) followed by plate number (1-n, no leading zeroes), row character (A-P, single upper case letter) and column (1-24, no leading zeroes). Please refer also to <http://www.ncbi.nlm.nih.gov/genome/clone/nomen.html>

Users of this library are not permitted to become secondary distributors of the clones or utilize the clones for commercial applications.
